

2015 Rockhounds Of The Year Chris and Marléné Kyte

We are proud to recognize Chris and Marléné Kyte as our 2015 Rockhounds Of The Year! Chris and Marléné have been the backbone of the club - working tirelessly for many years. They have shared their talents, their time and service enhancing the club. Chris runs the kitchen and display cases at our annual shows and often leads field trips. He instructs on the use of workshop saws and maintains them. Chris and Marléné have held many different positions and performed them very well. Chris served as Secretary, Vice President, President and Trustee. Marléné served as Show Chair & Membership Chair and works with Chris to plan and lead field trips. They promote the Pasadena Lapidary Society with their words and deeds. Wherever you look, Chris and Marléné are there - doing whatever is needed!
